

Carlow County Museum and 5th Carlow (Town) Scouts present a new exhibition:

"On My Honour I Will Try..." Scouting in Carlow, 90 Years Growing

The founding of Scouting began in England when Robert Baden-Powell, held the first Scout Camp in 1907. The movement spread worldwide and in 1929 the 1st Carlow Troop was established. 90 years later the 5th Carlow Town Scout Group is still going strong with a membership of approximately 200. Carlow County Museum is hosting this special exhibition which explores the growth, development and evolution of Scouting in Carlow, right through to the present day.
